

President Harry S. Truman welcomes the Youth Governors to the White House during the 1st YMCA Youth Governors Conference in 1949.

(Above) President Kennedy welcomes the Youth Governors to the White House during the 1962 YMCA Youth Governors Conference

(Left) President Johnson surprised the Youth Governors during the 1968 YMCA Youth Governors Conference to announce his support for the 26th Amendment to the Constitution, which lowered the voting age to 18 and was sponsored by YMCA Youth and Government supporter Sen. Jennings Randolph of West Virginia.

President Richard Nixon meets with the YMCA Youth Governors at the White House during the 1970 YMCA Youth Governors Conference.

YMCA
YOUTH
GOVERNORS'
CONFERENCE